

CIRCLE THE WORLD

By Dana Lyons

What if we could circle the world
Flying peace doves beneath the sun
Giant twenty foot wings of fabric
That are handmade by everyone
Once a year we circle the world
Saying ain't it time to bury the guns
Our time has come and we have begun
To Circle the World

It's a dream and it's a vision
It's a prayer that we may see
When every person, every creature
Will be treated with dignity
When every war will be a memory
We never shall repeat
Our time has come and we have begun
To Circle the World

It's a parade and it's a party
Giant puppets with many drums
It's a song with many rhythms
That is sung in many tongues
It's a giant snake dance
In every country beneath the sun
Our time has come and we have begun
To circle the world
